1. Purpose

Background verification (BGV) confirms that the information a new joiner has provided is accurate. Completing BGV is a prerequisite for granting access to company systems that hold customer or confidential data.

2. When BGV starts

2.1 BGV is initiated by HR Compliance once the joiner's identity proof, address proof and PAN card have been Accepted under POL-HR-001.

2.2 Education and employment checks start once the related certificates and relieving letters have been Accepted.

3. Scope of checks by grade

- Identity verification. G1 to g3: Yes; g4 to g6: Yes; g7 and above: Yes.
- Address verification. G1 to g3: Yes; g4 to g6: Yes; g7 and above: Yes.
- Education verification. G1 to g3: Highest degree; g4 to g6: Highest degree; g7 and above: All degrees.
- Previous employment. G1 to g3: Last employer; g4 to g6: Last 2 employers; g7 and above: Last 3 employers.

4. Turnaround time

4.1 The verification partner must complete BGV within 10 working days of initiation.

4.2 HR Compliance tracks each case daily. If a case passes 10 working days, it is escalated as described in section 7.

5. BGV and system access

5.1 BGV must be completed with a Clear or Clear with Minor Discrepancy result before any access to production systems or customer data is granted.

5.2 If BGV is still in progress on the joining date, the employee may receive provisional access: corporate email, the HR portal, the learning platform and internal collaboration tools only. Provisional access must not include source code repositories with production deployment rights, production environments, or customer data.

5.3 IT Service Desk must check the BGV status in the HR record before granting any access beyond provisional access.

6. Discrepancies

6.1 A minor discrepancy (for example, a date mismatch of under 3 months in employment history) is reviewed by HR Compliance and usually closed as Clear with Minor Discrepancy.

6.2 A major discrepancy (for example, an unverifiable degree or an undisclosed employer) is referred to the Head of Human Resources and the hiring manager. The joiner will be given an opportunity to explain before any decision is taken.

7. Escalation

- Case not initiated 2 working days after documents are accepted. Escalate to: HR Compliance Lead; within: 1 working day.
- Verification partner beyond 10 working days. Escalate to: HR Compliance Lead, then Head of HR; within: 1 working day, then 3 working days.
- Joining date within 5 days and BGV not started. Escalate to: Hiring manager and HR Onboarding; within: Same day.

8. Consent

BGV is performed only after the joiner signs the BGV consent form (HR-F-07), which is sent with the offer letter.
